

READING PLAN

A Simple Five-Chapter Bible Reading Plan

Read five chapters each day from five different sections of the Bible. Begin your day with Proverbs and end your day with Psalms. Read the other three chapters between those two.

Each section moves forward one chapter at a time. When you finish a section, return to its beginning the next day. You do not need to wait for the other sections to finish.

YOUR DAILY READING

- 1 Begin with one chapter of Proverbs. Read Proverbs 1–31, then return to Proverbs 1 and repeat.
- 2 Read one chapter of the Old Testament. Begin in Genesis and continue through Malachi, skipping Psalms and Proverbs because you are already reading them separately. After Job, move directly to Ecclesiastes. After Malachi, return to Genesis 1 and repeat.
- 3 Read one chapter of the Gospels. Begin in Matthew and continue through Mark, Luke, and John. After John, return to Matthew 1 and repeat.
- 4 Read one chapter of the rest of the New Testament. Begin in Acts and continue through Revelation. After Revelation, return to Acts 1 and repeat.
- 5 End with one chapter of Psalms. Read Psalms 1–150, then return to Psalm 1 and repeat.

YOUR FIRST THREE DAYS

Day	Begin: Proverbs	Old Testament	Gospels	Acts–Revelation	End: Psalms
1	Proverbs 1	Genesis 1	Matthew 1	Acts 1	Psalm 1
2	Proverbs 2	Genesis 2	Matthew 2	Acts 2	Psalm 2
3	Proverbs 3	Genesis 3	Matthew 3	Acts 3	Psalm 3

Continue forward in each section. For example, on Day 32, your Proverbs reading returns to Proverbs 1, while your Psalms reading continues to Psalm 32. The other sections continue from wherever you finished the day before.

KEEP IT SIMPLE

Use five bookmarks or keep a short note of your place in each section. This is a continuous reading plan, so your Proverbs chapter does not need to match the date of the month.

If you miss a day, resume where you stopped. Read carefully, ask God for understanding, and let what you learn shape how you live. The goal is to keep returning to the whole Bible and grow in knowing and following Christ.
